What makes your stay at the Bristol truly unique?

The historic Bristol Hotel, part of the chain Historic Hotels of Europe, was originally built in 1870. It offers boutique accommodation in the heart of the Ladadika district with free Wi-Fi.

Bristol Hotel features elegant rooms and suites with wooden floors, Persian carpets, paintings and unique antiques.

In this cozy 5-star boutique, hotel guests will discover a quiet corner in the city's heart, just a few metres from the central Aristotelous square, the city's commercial market and the seashore.

The distance from the International Exhibition Centre is 1.5km and from the airport it is 15km. Free bicycles are available.

Guests can taste homemade breakfast delicacies in the hotel's lobby. The Italo-Argentinean restaurant El Correo Cocina Argentina impresses with its fine selection of aromatic coffees, fine wines, and delicious dishes.

El Correo (the Spanish word for "post office") Cocina Argentina, Thessaloniki's most authentic Argentine restaurant, takes you on a journey to the heart of Latin America through its traditional cuisine. The quick tempo of an Argentine tango serenades guests as they dine in a warm, discreet environment, painted in natural light. El Correo's personable staff is prepared and willing to guide you through your culinary experience. We invite you to try the imaginative salads, delectable appetizers and rich, traditional dishes. :: www.elcorreo.gr ::
